2.1.32 Unless there are exceptional reasons, the financial negotiations will not involve the remuneration rates for staff (no fees breakdown).

2.1.33 Having selected the form on the basis of, among other things, an evaluation of proposed key professional staff, Scheme expects to negotiate a contract on the basis of the experts named in the proposal. Before contract negotiations, Scheme will require assurances that the experts will be actually available. Scheme will not consider substitutions during contract negotiations unless both parties agree that undue delay in the selection process makes such substitution unavoidable or that such changes are critical to meet the objectives of the assignment. If this is not the case and if it is established that key staff were offered in the proposal without confirming their availability, the firm may be disqualified.

2.1.34 The negotiations will conclude with a review of the draft form of the Contract. To complete negotiations Scheme and the selected firm will initial the agreed Contract. If negotiations fail, Scheme will invite the firm whose proposal received the second highest score to negotiate a contract.

2.1.35 Scheme shall appoint a team for the purpose of the negotiations.

1.9. Award of Contract

2.1.38 The parties to the contract shall have it signed within 30 days from the date of notification of contract award unless there is an administrative review request or any unforeseen delays.

- Document and log all strata encountered, noting soil/rock type, color, texture, consistency, depth of each stratum, and groundwater level.

ii. Trial Pit Excavation

- Excavate representative trial pits (approximately 10 No.) to depths up to 3.0 metres below existing ground level across the site.
- Collect disturbed and undisturbed soil samples at relevant depths for laboratory testing.

- Record stratigraphic profiles, groundwater conditions, and any visual anomalies.

iii. Field Investigations

- Conduct in-situ testing, including but not limited to:
- Standard Penetration Tests (SPT)

- Pocket penetrometer and field density tests, where applicable.
- Identify problematic soils such as expansive clays, collapsible sands, or organic deposits.
- Record groundwater levels and evaluate their likely fluctuation and effect on foundation design.

iv. Geological and Site Inspection

- Undertake a detailed engineering geological survey of the site to assess surface and subsurface conditions.
- Relate the site geology to the broader Nairobi volcanic and tuff formations typical of the Upper Hill area.
- Identify potential geotechnical hazards such as weak strata, perched water tables, or slope instability.

v. Laboratory Testing

Perform laboratory tests on collected soil samples in accordance with BS 1377 to determine:

- Grain size distribution (sieve and hydrometer analysis)
- Atterberg limits (plastic and liquid limits)
- Natural moisture content and bulk density
- Shear strength parameters (triaxial or direct shear tests)
- Consolidation and compressibility characteristics
- Permeability
- Chemical composition (pH, sulfates, chlorides, and organic content)

vi. Engineering Analysis

- Analyze field and laboratory data to establish bearing capacities, allowable bearing pressures, and anticipated settlements for proposed structures.

- Evaluate the suitability of soils for use as backfill or subgrade material, specifying optimum moisture content and compaction requirements.
